CHRISTMAS DAY

10:00 A.M.

Welcome all visitors! We welcome all who worship with us. May the joy of Christ's presence and the power of the Holy Spirit fill you with peace and hope! We are honored by your presence and trust that you will join us in the praise and worship of God. Please sign our guest book in the narthex. If you are interested in church membership, please give your name and telephone number to Pastor Rankin.

Welcome to the Eucharist! All who seek to follow Jesus and who seek the gifts Jesus offers us are invited to share in this sacrament of Holy Communion. Children are invited to receive communion at the discretion of their parents/guardians. If a child wants to receive a blessing, they are asked to fold their hands.

Prayer As You Enter: Shine into our hearts the light of your wisdom, O God, and open our minds to the knowledge of your word, that in all things we may think and act according to your good will and may live continually in the light of your Son, Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE: Originating at England's Truro Cathedral in 1878, the Service of Nine Lessons and Carols tells the story of the fall of humanity, the promise of the Messiah, and the birth of Jesus in nine short scripture lessons from Genesis, the prophetic books, and the Gospels. Interspersed between the readings are hymns and carols that reflect the reading.

Today's service is an adaptation of the Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols at King's College in Cambridge, England. The first festival service was held on Christmas Eve 1918. The service was planned by Eric Milner-White, who had just been appointed Dean of King's College after service as an military chaplain. He was convinced that the Church of England needed more imaginative worship.

Since 1919, the service has always begun with the hymn Once in Royal David's City. The scriptures always stay the same, but the choice of carols varies. This service has been broadcast annually around the world on Christmas Eve since 1928. Wherever the service is heard or however it has been adapted, the pattern and strength of the service, as Dean Milner-White pointed out, derive from the lessons and not the music.

The main theme of this service is the development and loving purposes of God as seen through the windows and words of the Bible.

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen. (sung)

THE COLLECT

Almighty God, you gave us your only Son to take on our human nature and to illumine the world with your light. By your grace adopt us as your children and enlighten us with your Spirit, through Jesus Christ, our Redeemer and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

CONFESSION OF SINS

CALL TO CONFESSION

What a rare gift this season brings. God loves us so much that God came to us in Jesus. Let us humble ourselves and confess our sins before the God of love.

(SEATED OR KNEELING)

SILENT CONFESSION

CONFESSION OF SIN

Let us confess in the presence of God and one another.

Holy God, we confess our sin before you. We replace compassion with competition. We seek what is mighty while ignoring the meek. We are quick to anger but slow to forgive. We have not put on love in harmony with you. Wrap us in the grace of your powerful Word. Swaddle our heart with your peace, that all we do, in word or deed, may reflect your love born among us. Amen.

Sing For Joy All the Earth

Charles E. Hambrick-Stowe
December 2014

Piae Cantiones; arr. Gustav Holst

Sing for joy all the earth, God is love, sing it forth,

The first system of music features a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 4/4. The vocal line begins with a whole rest for two measures, then enters with the lyrics. The piano accompaniment starts with a bass line of eighth notes and a treble line of chords.

praise to God for the birth of his Son our Sa - vior, for the Spi-rit's pow - er.

The second system continues the piece. The vocal line has a whole rest for two measures before entering. The piano accompaniment continues with a steady eighth-note bass line and chordal accompaniment in the treble.

13
Sing for hope, peace, love! Sing for hope, peace, love!

The third system features a vocal line with a whole rest for two measures. The piano accompaniment includes a section with sustained chords in the bass, indicated by a brace and a fermata-like line.

17
Sing for joy! Glo - ri - a in ex - cel - sis De - o!

The fourth system concludes the piece. The vocal line has a whole rest for two measures. The piano accompaniment features a final section with sustained chords in the bass.

OFFERTORY PRAYER

God of abundance, we bring before you the precious fruits of your creation, and with them our very lives. Teach us patience and hope as we care for all those in need until the coming of your Son, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord!

Let us give thanks to God Most High.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Mighty God, Wonderful Counselor, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. In ancient days, you created us in your image to be reflections of your glory. When we fell short and dimmed the brilliance of your light shining through us, you held our hands and walked with us out of the garden into all the corners of the earth. When we are afraid to look upon your glory, you came as a quiet traveler, as a burning bush, and as a pillar of light. You called us to be people of light, to walk no longer in darkness, and always, you light our way. Even when we walk in darkness, you shine your light and offer your grace, awaiting our return to you. In the fullness of time, you sent your Son Jesus Christ to reveal your glory and grace. And so, with your people on earth and all the angels in heaven, we praise your holy name and join their unending hymn.

SERAPHIC HYMN

The musical score is written for a piano and voice. It consists of two systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are: "Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Lord God of heav'n and earth; An - gels praise You with joy - ful song." and "Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Lord God of heav'n and earth; Who has sent us Your on - ly Son." The first system ends with a double bar line, and the second system begins with a measure rest marked with the number 5.

By Your gift You saved us. We lift our new Ho - san - a.

11
Praise we with the an - gels now for all now are one.

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of two systems of music. Each system has a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#). The lyrics are written below the notes. The first system ends with a double bar line. The second system begins with a measure rest labeled '11' and continues with the lyrics 'Praise we with the an - gels now for all now are one.' The music is in a simple, homophonic style.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION AND PRAYER OF CONSECRATION

THE PRAYER OF OUR LORD

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE HOST & POURING OF THE CUP

As this grain was once scattered in the fields, and has come together in one bread, so we, with different needs and hopes, come together as one, for we share one bread.

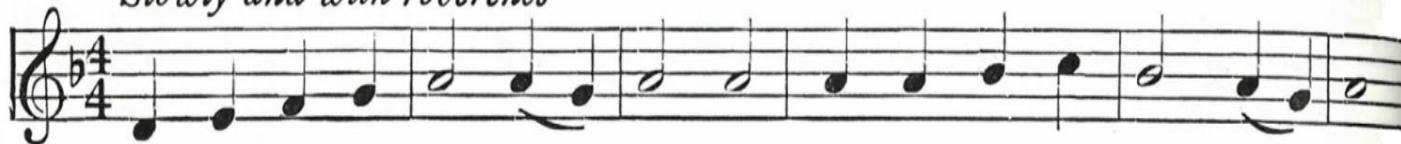

The Bread of Life, broken for us.

The cup which we share is the cup of the New Covenant written in our hearts and witnessed by Jesus.

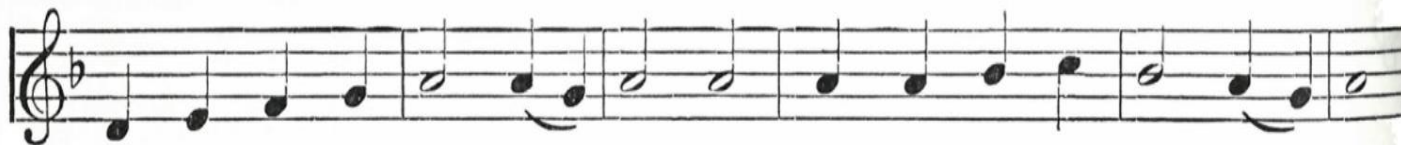

The Cup of Blessing, poured out for us and for the many.

COMMUNION HYMN Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence

Slowly and with reverence

1. Let all mor-tal flesh keep si-lence, And with fear and trem-bling stand;
2. King of kings, yet born of Ma-ry, As of old on earth He stood,

Pon-der noth-ing earth-ly-mind-ed, For with bless-ing in His hand,
Lord of lords, in hu-man ves-ture—In the bod-y and the blood—

Christ our God to earth de-scend-eth, Our full hom-age to de-mand.
He will give to all the faith-ful His own self for heavenly food.

(Those who wish to come forward will be invited by the pastor. The pastor will serve you the host, saying, "The Body of Christ." You reply, "Amen!" The assistant will present you with the cup, saying, "The Blood of Christ." You reply, "Amen!" Grape juice is in the chalice with the cross and wine is in the other chalice. If you need the pastor and assistant to come to you, please indicate that to someone near you or the pastor. If you do not wish to come forward, you are invited to use the packaged elements in the narthex and commune in your pew. The pastor will offer a blessing everyone has communed. Children are invited to receive communion at the discretion of their parents/guardians. If a child wants to receive a blessing, they are asked to fold their hands.)

PRAYERS OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

Let us pray together.

O God, who makes us glad with the yearly remembrance of the birth of your only Son, Jesus Christ: Grant that as we joyfully receive him for our redeemer, so we may with sure confidence behold him, when he shall come to be our judge; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end.
Amen.

On this day, O God, you gave us Christ the Son to save us. As you sent the one foretold, send us now with good news for all people. Let the gladness of this feast have no end as we share with others the joy that fills us; through Jesus Christ our Savior and Lord. Amen.

HYMN

Joy to the World!

No. 120

BENEDICTION AND THREEFOLD AMEN

May he who by his Incarnation gathered into one things earthly and heavenly, fill you with the sweetness of inward peace and goodwill; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you always. Amen.
