Our Philosophy

Trinity U.C.C. Preschool provides a developmental approach to learning which cares for the whole child. We strive to:

- Help each child develop a positive self-image
- Give each child a thirst for knowledge
- Help each child learn as they are developmentally ready to reach their potential
- Provide each child with opportunities, including:
 - Enriching hands on experiences
 - Physical development of large and small muscles
 - Discovery of acceptable outlets for emotions
- Stimulate language development
- Develop awareness of the five senses
- Encourage independence
- Provide a strong foundation for future learning
- Provide interaction with other children and nurturing adults
- Encourage gradual development of self-regulation skills and the opportunity to practice them
- Encourage a positive attitude toward school and learning
- Scaffold opportunities for academic development and school readiness

Our Teachers

Director - Amy Grube is a graduate of Penn State University with a BS in elementary education and a MS from Millersville University in reading with a reading specialist certification and has been in public education for 20 years. Amy worked at East Petersburg Elementary school as a classroom teacher and a reading specialist at Landisville Primary Center following time at home with her two children. She lives close by in the district with her husband and two grown children.

Elyanis Martinez is a graduate from Penn Manor High School, she is currently a student at HACC to earn her associates degree in early childhood education to then earn her bachelors degree at Millersville University. Outside of the classroom, she coaches Little League cheerleading where she loves helping children build their teamwork skills and confidence. She is so excited to be joining the Trinity Preschool team!

Crystal Shank has been a part of Trinity Preschool and Summer Camp since 2020. A Trinity alum herself, she sent her three kids here as well. After attending Hempfield High School, Crystal ran her own at home daycare for ten years. She loves to watch children grow and learn new things!

Betty Cox has assisted for over 30 years with the 2-day and 3-day classes at our school. She has taught forty years at Hempfield Church of the Brethren and was involved in their youth program. She is a mother and grandmother. Betty says, “A child is so open to learning new ideas. To me children are a joy. I love to be with children; they are a blessing!”

Monica Lantz Monica is a Shippensburg University graduate with a BS in Elementary Education. She obtained her Masters in Early Childhood through Lock Haven University. Monica has previously taught for UGRO Learning Centres, and has also taught Kindergarten in Hempfield School District. Monica has a son who is a Trinity graduate and a daughter who is currently enrolled in Trinity Preschool. She and her husband and kids live in East Pete and enjoy spending as much time outdoors as possible.

Ashley Johnston is a homeschool graduate from the Penn Manor School District. She enjoys volunteering in the Kids/Nursery program at her church and has been helping for quite a few years! She volunteered at Trinity when her children attended and now enjoys working with your children and being a part of their learning on a daily basis! She is married and has 2 children who are elementary school aged. She loves to go line dancing when she gets a spare moment & loves pandas!
